BRIEF HISTORY
OF THE
Mt. Vernon Congregational Church,
IN BOSTON.

DURING the years 1840 and 1841, several brethren of the Orthodox Congregational churches in Boston were impressed with the importance of forming a new church in the city, with a view of obtaining the services of the Rev. EDWARD N. KIRK, as its pastor. These impressions having been strengthened in the latter part of the year 1841, during a season of special religious interest in the churches, a meeting of pastors and lay brethren was called to consider the subject, December 16, 1841.

The following is a transcript of the official record of that meeting :—

A meeting of the pastors and several lay brethren from the Orthodox Congregational churches in this city, was held at the house of Deacon Daniel Safford, on Thursday, Dec. 16th, 1841, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

The meeting was called to consider the expediency of forming a new Orthodox Congregational church in this city, and inviting the Rev. EDWARD N. KIRK to become its pastor.

There were present, of the Pastors, the Rev. Messrs. Aiken, Adams, Winslow, Rogers, Blagden, and Towne, and the Rev. Seth Bliss, Secretary of the American Tract Society; of the lay brethren, Deacons Samuel T. Armstrong, Pliny Cutler, Daniel Safford, Lewis T. Stoddard, Eliphalet Kimball, Lemuel P. Grosvenor, N. P. Rogers, Charles Scudder, Daniel Noyes, James Tufts, and Charles Stoddard; Messrs. Moses L. Hale, George W. Crockett, Samuel Hubbard, Thomas A. Davis, Charles W. Homer, and William W. Stone.

Samuel T. Armstrong was called to preside, and William W. Stone to act as Secretary.

The Rev. N. Adams led in prayer. The Rev. Mr. Aiken stated the object for which the meeting was called, and each individual present was requested to express his views of the proposal. The Rev. Messrs. Rogers, Aiken, Winslow, Adams, Blagden, Towne and Bliss were unanimously of opinion that a new Orthodox Congregational church in this city should be formed without delay, and that the Rev. EDWARD N. KIRK should be obtained, if possible, for its pastor; and expressed their readiness to render any aid in their power towards accomplishing the object.

The lay brethren present unanimously coincided in these views, provided satisfactory assurances could be given that sufficient funds could be obtained to erect a house of worship.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Bliss, a committee of nine was appointed to take the subject into consideration, and to take such measures for the accomplishment of the object, as they should deem expedient, with power to fill vacancies in the committee.

The following brethren were appointed on this committee: Rev. Seth Bliss, Deacons Pliny Cutler, Charles Scudder, Charles Stoddard, Julius A. Palmer, Daniel Safford, Messrs. George W. Crockett, Moses L. Hale, and William W. Stone.

After the reading of the above records by the Secretary and their adoption as the doings of the meeting, Rev. Mr. Aiken led in prayer, and the meeting was dissolved.

SAMUEL T. ARMSTRONG, Chairman.

WILLIAM W. STONE, Secretary.

The committee of nine thus constituted (Messrs. L. P. Grosvenor and George R. Sampson having been substituted for Deacons Cutler and Stoddard, who were unable to serve,) held various meetings from December 16th to the 29th of March following, for prayer and consultation, in which the enterprise was often discussed in all its bearings ; and after obtaining the names of twenty-five brethren, who professed themselves ready to be united with a new church on condition that the Rev. Mr. KIRK should become its pastor, they dissolved, transferring to these brethren all their powers and instructions, and commending them and their enterprise to the Great Head of the Church, and to the confidence and coöperation of their brethren in this city. Five of this committee believed that duty required them to give themselves personally to the enterprise.

During the months of April and May, the brethren who had thus associated themselves, met frequently to promote the object which they had in view, and held a weekly meeting for prayer. The Rev. EDWARD N. KIRK having signified to a committee of the brethren his intention to accept the invitation of the new church to become its pastor, whenever such church should be formed, an Ecclesiastical Council was called, and convened in the vestry of the Park Street meeting-house, on the morning of Wednesday, June 1st, 1842; when twenty-five brethren and twenty-two sisters, who at their own request were dismissed from their several churches for the purpose, were regularly organized into a church.

The consecrating prayer was offered by the Rev. William Jenks, D. D., pastor of the Green Street church in Boston, and the fellowship of the churches expressed by the Rev. William M. Rogers of the Central church.

The churches represented in this council, were all the Orthodox Congregational churches in the county of Suffolk; Second church in Dorchester; Mercer Street Church in New York City; First church in Malden; Evangelical Congregational church in Cambridgeport; Eliot church in Roxbury; First Congregational church in Charlestown; Winthrop church in Charlestown; First church in Cambridge.

Upon the same day the Rev. EDWARD N. KIRK was invited by the new church to become its pastor; and having accepted the invitation, was installed in the afternoon by the Ecclesiastical Council called to organize the church.

At a meeting of the brethren holden upon the evening of June 1st, 1842, Thomas Adams, Daniel Safford, Julius A. Palmer, and Marshall S. Scudder were chosen deacons of the church.

The church held its first public religious exercise in the Old South Chapel, which was generously tendered for its use by the Old South Society, upon Sabbath, June 5th, when the Lord's Supper was administered, and several infant children received the ordinance of baptism.

On the 19th day of June, 1842, public worship was commenced in the Lecture Room of the Masonic Temple, and continued there until the 31st of December, 1843.

The first meeting with reference to the erection of a house of worship was convened January 3d, 1843, by a public notice from the pulpit on the preceding Sabbath. At this meeting it was determined, after deliberation and prayer, that the time had arrived when we were called, in the providence of God, to go forward and erect another sanctuary for His worship. A subscription was accordingly commenced for the purpose, and subsequently the following gentlemen were elected a Building Committee, with full power to select the location and erect the building, to wit:—George W. Crockett, William W. Stone, Daniel Safford, John Slade, Jr., Rowland Cutler, Freeman L. Cushman, and George F. Homer.

After many ineffectual attempts to obtain a situation combining the requisite advantages, the committee in the month of May succeeded in contracting for an estate on the north side of Somerset Court, now ASHBURTON PLACE, a site unequalled perhaps by any in the city for the purpose, considering its quiet location, and its advantages for ventilation and light.

On the 23d of June, 1843, the church voted to assume the name of "Mount Vernon Congregational Church," adopting the name by which the western section of the hill on which the building is erected has long been known.

The corner-stone was laid on the morning of July 4th, 1843, on which occasion an appropriate address was delivered by the pastor, and the Rev. Lyman Beecher, D. D., led in prayer.

On the 7th of September, 1843, the stockholders met pursuant to a warrant duly issued by a justice of the peace, and were organized into a Corporation according to law, by the passage of the necessary votes, and the appointment of Standing Committees.

The following articles were adopted as the basis of union between the church and society :—

“The following plan of organization is hereby adopted by the Mount Vernon Congregational Society, which shall be permanent, and to the several articles of which all deeds of pews shall be made subject :

“I. Whenever the church and society shall be destitute of a settled pastor, a joint committee of the church and society, consisting of nine persons, of whom five shall be chosen by the church and four by the society, shall supply the pulpit, and adopt all measures necessary to that end. Temporary supplies of the pulpit, during the absence or sickness of the pastor, shall be provided by the pastor and deacons of the church, and the bills of expense necessarily incurred for that purpose, shall be submitted to the Standing or Prudential Committee, and when approved by them shall be paid by the Treasurer.

“II. The church shall have the right to select the pastor or colleague pastor, (whenever the church and society shall deem it expedient to have a colleague pastor,) to be proposed to the society for their concurrence. If such selection is approved by the society, a joint call from the church and society shall be extended the person selected; but in case of non-concurrence, the church shall select until the society concur; when a joint call as above shall be given to the person so selected and approved.

“ III. The amount of salary to be paid to the pastor, or colleague pastor, shall be fixed by the society.

“ IV. By the word church hereinbefore used, is meant male members of the church of the age of twenty-one years and upwards.”

The house having been completed on the 4th of January, 1844, just six months from the day on which the corner-stone was laid, it was solemnly dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. The pastor was assisted in the services of the occasion by the Rev. Messrs. Adams, Winslow, Rogers, Aiken, Blagden and Jenks.

The dimensions of the building are 75 feet by 97, containing 120 pews on the lower floor, and 50 in the gallery, in which 1200 persons may be comfortably seated. The basement story contains, besides the several committee rooms, a commodious chapel, 68 feet long by 48 feet wide, and fifteen feet high, which accommodates 600 persons with seats.

On the 3d of February, 1856, it pleased the Great Head of the Church to call to his heavenly home Deacon DANIEL SAFFORD, who, next to the pastor, had been our leader from the commencement of the enterprise.

In commemoration of the event, the church placed upon its records the following Preamble and Resolves :

“ It having pleased the Wise Disposer of all events to remove from the church on earth our senior Deacon, the late Hon. DANIEL SAFFORD, the surviving members, with a deep sense of an irreparable loss, adopt the following Resolves :—

"I. That we bow submissively to the divine will, under this afflictive dispensation, which has deprived us of an honored leader, and a beloved brother, while we devoutly acknowledge our obligations to the Giver of all good, who placed him here as one of the original members, and continued him as 'a burning and shining light' to the end of his mortal life.

"II. That we appreciate his example and influence in all that was noble and praiseworthy, and would cherish a grateful remembrance of his wise counsels, liberal contributions and unceasing labors for our welfare, and also of the kindness and affectionate sympathy ever manifested towards us, both as a private member and officer of the church."

The preceding resolutions were moved by the Hon. George W. Crockett, who had been intimately associated with Deacon Safford in the labors and sacrifices which resulted in the establishment of this religious society. On the 14th of August, 1859, he too was called to go up higher in the kingdom of our Lord, and has entered, as we trust, upon the reward of "a good and faithful servant." Brother Crockett was the chairman of the Committee who built the meeting-house, and who had superintended the Society's financial affairs from its organization to the time of his death, a period of sixteen years.

To his prudence, judgment, practical wisdom and efficient skill in executing the pecuniary measures of the enterprise, we are greatly indebted for the successful plans and financial prosperity by which we have been favored from the beginning.

In December, 1856, the Pastor left Boston on a mission to Paris, France, by request of the American and Foreign Christian Union, to superintend the establishment of American Protestant worship in that capital, and the erection of a chapel. He returned September, 1857, having successfully accomplished the work which was the object of his voyage.

The early members of the church will always cherish the memory of Brother ALBERT HOBART, as remarkable for the punctuality and constancy of his attendance upon all its meetings, the fidelity with which he sought to promote its interests, and the accuracy and neatness with which he kept its records. On the 15th day of January, 1867, he was called to bid adieu to earth, and as an expression of the feelings of the church, the following resolution was adopted:

“That in view of the recent death of Brother ALBERT HOBART, one of the original members of this church, for many years its efficient Clerk and Treasurer, and to the end of his life one of the Church Committee, the Mt. Vernon Church desire to place upon record their sense of the loss which they have experienced in the removal from earthly activity of their much-esteemed brother, and their gratitude to God for having so long continued his Christian usefulness, and for having enabled him to honor his profession by an uniformly exemplary and consistent character.”

June 1st, 1867, being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the church, and the installation of its pastor, was appropriately observed by a reunion of the past and present members. Meetings were held in the afternoon and evening, at which grateful acknowledgments were made of the favor of God, as manifested in our history, and pleasant reminiscences were indulged of bygone days, and touching allusions made to those of our number who had left us either for other fields of usefulness on earth or for more exalted privileges in heaven.

The health of Rev. Dr. Kirk having been impaired for several months, on the first of Sept., 1869, he sent the following communication to the church and society:

“DEAR BRETHREN AND FRIENDS:

“I have anxiously awaited the test of time to determine the will of God concerning my future course. My own experience confirms, at length, the judgment of my medical friends that in justice to the Lord whom I serve, to the people so dear to me, to the cause I have supremely at heart, I can no longer bear the responsibility of acting pastor of Mt. Vernon Church. You imperatively need a leader in the full possession of all his powers, mental and bodily. I ask not a dismissal from the pastoral office, but from its cares, duties and emoluments. Choose, then, a man of God, competent to take the entire charge of the church. Let him understand that I shall be, in fact, his assistant, and ready to render every aid in my power. I do not ask for a severance of the tie that now so happily unites us, because I have no desire to form any other connection.

“Whatever my future relations to you may be, my heart shall ever revert, with thankfulness to God, to the memories of the past; and my desire and prayer will ever be for your prosperity as a church, for the presence of God in your dwellings, and for your eternal salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ. May you receive a baptism of the spirit of grace and supplication for the present important crisis in the history of our beloved church; and may grace, mercy and peace be with you evermore.

“Your affectionate pastor,

“EDWARD N. KIRK.”

At a united meeting of the church and society, held on the 24th of the same month, the following resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote :—

“ I. That the letter of our pastor, Rev. Dr. KIRK, stating that the condition of his health compels him to change his official relation to this church and society as its pastor, has filled all our hearts with the most sincere regret.

“ II. That we are deeply grateful to a kind Providence for the harmonious relations which have, without interruption, existed between our pastor and this church and society from its foundation, and that his faithful, able, and devoted ministrations, for so long a period, have awakened towards him feelings of the highest respect and affectionate regard.

“ III. That under this dispensation of Divine Providence, which for the present deprives him of the hallowed privilege of preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ, we offer to him our tenderest sympathies; and that we earnestly pray that his physical energies may be so fully restored that we may be permitted again and often to listen to his voice of admonition, of exhortation, and of prayer, and that he may yet be enabled, under the continued divine blessing and guidance, to lead many souls to the Saviour.”

On the 12th of April, 1871, a unanimous call of the church and society having been extended to Rev. SAMUEL E. HERRICK, he was installed as associate pastor with Rev. Dr. Kirk.

After preaching a few weeks, agreeably to an arrangement made before his installation, he visited Europe, and was absent about four months, during which time extensive repairs and improvements were made in our house of worship.

On the 14th of March, 1872, Deacon JULIUS A. PALMER, an honored officer of the church from its organization, whose health had been declining for several years, was transferred from the church militant to the church triumphant.

In view of this bereavement, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted by the church :—

“Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove by death our honored and esteemed brother in Christ, Deacon JULIUS A. PALMER :

“RESOLVED, I. That this church bows in humble submission to His will who alone can determine the best time when, and the circumstances under which, His children may be transferred from this sphere of duties, of trials, and of joys, to that upper sanctuary where tears shall be wiped from all eyes, and there shall be no more death.

“II. That we gratefully recognize the eminent usefulness of our late brother and fellow-Christian, as one of the original founders of this church, whose sound judgment and wisdom have often been illustrated in its past history, and whose life and character furnish an example not only of conscientious devotion to the discharge of his duties as one of its officers, but also in the diversified relations of society. Honorable in his commercial life, and in the performance of his public duties as a citizen, intelligent and affable as a friend, amiable and affectionate in the domestic circle, faithful to the trust of the widow and fatherless, and a humble follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, whose cause he earnestly endeavored to promote, we may well seek to emulate his example.”

Dr. Kirk continued for nearly three years after the settlement of his colleague to enjoy the society and affection of his people and the worship of the sanctuary, though increasing feebleness and almost total loss of sight prevented active pulpit or pastoral duties, until, on the 27th of March, 1874, he was suddenly removed, by a stroke of apoplexy, to the joys and employments of the redeemed in glory.

By a fire which occurred Sunday, Dec. 27th, 1879, and which consumed the entire contents of the clerk's office, the church met with the irreparable loss of all its records from the beginning, excepting the Book of autograph subscriptions to the Covenant, which was habitually kept in the committee room at the chapel. Consequently, the resolutions passed by the church on the occasion of Dr. Kirk's death cannot be given here.

In 1879 the Chambers Street Church, which had for many years been sustained by the Old South, was disbanded in accordance with the advice of a Council, and a large number of the members found a home with us and became a constituent and helpful part of our communion. At the same time, the Chinese Sunday School, which had recently been organized by Miss Harriette Carter, was removed to our chapel, where it has continued, under her supervision, to increase in numbers until it is now one of the largest and most successful of our agencies for evangelization. This fact will account for the appearance of some strange names in our catalogue of membership. May the number be largely increased, until all these oriental brothers of ours shall learn that however they may be treated by human ordinances, in Christ Jesus there is neither Greek nor Jew, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

About the same time, the Salem and Mariners Church, at the North End, was also disbanded, and a considerable addition was likewise made to our membership from that source.

On Sunday, Feb. 6, 1881, Deacon JOHN M. PINKERTON, who had faithfully served the church in the diaconate for twenty-one years, passed suddenly away to his reward.

The following Resolutions were passed at the next meeting of the church, and entered upon the records :

“Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take to himself our brother, JOHN M. PINKERTON, for thirty-five years a beloved member, and for twenty-one years a faithful officer of this church :

“Resolved, That while we cannot but deeply mourn what now seems to us an irreparable bereavement, we filially bow to ‘God’s visible will,’ and seek at His hand the grace of resignation.

“Resolved, That we will gratefully remember, and record for those who come after us, his unceasing fidelity to private duties ; his loyalty to the interests of the church ; his singular purity of life ; which, combined with rare judgment and sanctified learning, made him, under God, an intelligent Christian, a wise officer in the church, a successful teacher, and, in so many other relations, a most useful member of society.

“Resolved, That we especially cherish and emulate his example as a humble follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.”

“Resolved, That this, the unanimous sentiment of his brethren, be entered upon the records of the church.”

Mount Vernon Church has contributed greatly to the strength and prosperity of other churches, in suburban cities and towns, having dismissed and recommended to them a large number who have become pastors, deacons and efficient members.

In reviewing the way in which the Lord has led us, the many tokens of his favor we have received during the forty years of our existence as a church, while we raise our “Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us,” it becomes us gratefully and humbly to consecrate ourselves anew to His service, relying upon the presence and power of the Spirit to give us continued and increasing prosperity.

Ecclesiastical Principles and Rules.

(Adopted June 23, 1842.)

Rights of the Church.—This church is independent so far as relates to its internal organization and the regulation of its affairs. It is amenable to no other ecclesiastical body, unless by its own consent, or according to regular and established Congregational principles. With these limitations, it controls the admission, discipline, and removal of its members, according to its own understanding of the word of God.

Connection with other Churches.—This church will extend to other Evangelical Congregational churches, and receive from them that fellowship, advice, and assistance, which the law of Christ requires. It will extend the usual rights of communion, and practice the usual transfer of members, according to its own convictions of duty. It holds itself bound to regard the decisions of mutual councils, and to seek the promotion of peace with all the churches of our Lord.

Officers.—The officers of the church shall be the Pastor or Pastors, and Deacons. To the pastor pertains the office of Moderator. It shall be the duty of the deacons to preside in the absence of the pastor, in rotation ; to assist in the administration of the Lord's Supper ; to distribute the charities of the church ; to aid the pastor generally in the spiritual care of the flock ; and, in his absence, to provide a supply for the pulpit. The number of the deacons shall be fixed by the church as its interests from time to time may require, and no person shall hold the office more than six years without a reëlection. At every annual meeting there shall be an election of one deacon, it being understood that the term of one incumbent shall expire annually, according to seniority of appointment.

Admission and Transfer of Members.—The church will examine all applicants for admission. It will grant dismissions to its members in regular standing, on their application in writing, and recommend them to the fellowship of other churches. All such applications to be referred to the church committee, when presented, to be reported upon at the next succeeding meeting of the church.* Members removing from the city, or who from other cause may cease to worship with this church shall be required to obtain their dismission within one year thereafter, unless circumstances be such as to render an union with any other church inexpedient ; and in such case they shall inform the church why they have not requested a removal of their connection. It is expected that members of other churches who may wish to commune with this church for more than one year, will request a dismission from their respective churches and an admission to this church, unless they give satisfactory reasons for delay to the church committee.

*Such letters to be valid for one year from date, and when a member is dismissed to another church the clerk shall inform said church of such dismission.

Rights of Members.—Every member has a right to church privileges, unless forfeited by misconduct; and when thus forfeited, he can be deprived of them only by regular process. The presentation of complaints shall in all cases be first made in writing to the church committee, whose duty thereupon it shall be to secure, if practicable, an amicable and scriptural adjustment of the matters complained of, and failing in this, to report the same to the church. When a member is accused, he shall be seasonably furnished with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a full hearing. While the trial is pending, the accused is expected to abstain from participating in the Lord's Supper.

Duties of the Church and its Members.—It is the duty of the members to attend such stated meetings as are appointed by a vote of the church, unless providentially prevented. Any member having cause of complaint against another, should immediately seek to have it removed in a Christian manner; the directions given in Matt. xviii., 15, 16, being his guide, especially in cases of personal offence. Any member wishing to withdraw from this church and to unite with another, should signify his wishes and his reasons, and apply in a proper spirit to be first released from his obligations to this church. Any other mode of withdrawal will be deemed irregular and censurable; and this church holds itself bound to grant its members in regular standing dismissions and recommendations to churches not only of our own, but of any other evangelical denomination.

Censurable Offences.—This church considers immoral conduct, breach of express covenant vows, neglect of acknowledged religious or relative duties, and avowed disbelief of the articles of faith to which the members have assented, as offences subject to the censure of the church.

Censures.—The censures inflicted on offenders are, private reproof, public admonition, or excommunication, according to the aggravation of the offence. If a person not otherwise censurable, separates irregularly from the church, or walks disorderly, the church may withdraw from him its watch and care, by which act he shall cease to be a member thereof. In case of excommunication, or of withdrawal of watch and care, notice shall be given from the pulpit on the Sabbath.

Alterations.—No alterations shall be made in the "Confession of Faith," "Covenant," "Standing Rules," or "Ecclesiastical Principles and Rules" of this church, except by a two-thirds vote, at a meeting regularly notified for the purpose, of which meeting public notice shall be given from the pulpit on the two preceding Sabbaths.

Standing Rules.

(Adopted June 18, 1842.)

I. All meetings for business shall be opened with prayer.

II. The annual meeting for the choice of Clerk and church committee, and for other business, shall be held on or before the third Wednesday in January; the time to be fixed by the deacons, and notice given from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding.

III. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep the records of the church, and to act as Treasurer.

IV. The church committee, of which the pastor, deacons, clerk, and superintendent of the sabbath-school shall constitute a part, shall examine all candidates for admission, and present the names of such as they approve. They shall also present to the church at each annual meeting, a statistical report of the condition of its membership, together with such information, in reference thereto, as they may deem expedient. If the committee have been unable to ascertain the residence of any of the members, so that it shall not be known whether they are living, their names shall be reported at the above meeting; and after having been thus reported for three consecutive years, without hearing from them, their names shall be placed on a "retired list," and they shall thereafter not be reckoned as members. In case any such member shall afterwards report himself, or his residence become known to the committee, his name shall be stricken from this list, and he shall be again included in the membership of the church.*

V. All standing committees and officers for the year shall be chosen by ballot.

VI. Candidates for membership shall be propounded to the church at least four weeks previous to admission; and notice thereof shall be publicly given on the second Sabbath following.

VII. All candidates for admission, having been approved by the church, shall become members by public profession, and by signing the articles of faith and covenant adopted by this church.

VIII. The Lord's Supper shall be celebrated on the first Sabbath in January, March, May, July, September and November. The admission of members together with the celebration of the ordinance, shall constitute the services of the afternoon.

*In performance of this duty, each member of the church committee becomes responsible to look after a certain portion of the church. At the close of every year, a report is made by the several members of the committee, to the clerk of the church, respecting the place of residence and circumstances of all the members whose names have been thus assigned, and the clerk communicates the result to the church.

IX. There shall be a weekly meeting of the church on Friday evening, for devotional exercises and conference.

X. The expenses of all delegations of the church to ecclesiastical councils shall be paid by the clerk from the funds of the church. A delegate chosen to represent the church, if unable to attend to the duty personally, may substitute some other member of the church to act in his stead.

Admission to the Church.

ADDRESS.

BELOVED FRIENDS:

In uniting with this church, you avow an agreement with its belief of the Christian doctrines, and enter into a special covenant with its members. We will therefore now ask the expression of your assent to that Confession of Faith and Covenant which have been adopted as the symbol and bond of our fellowship.

Hear then the

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

We believe—

That the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by the inspiration of God, and are the perfect and only infallible revelation to mankind of religious doctrine and duty.

And we believe that they teach us these great doctrines—

That there is but one God, a Spirit, infinite in all natural and moral perfections, existing as Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and that these Three are One, and in all Divine attributes equal.

That He made the Heavens and the earth, and all things therein, which He preserves and governs, for the accomplishing of His own most wise and holy purposes.

That man was made in the divine image; but that since the first transgression, all men have lost that image, and are by nature without holiness, and alienated from God.

That it is only by the effect of a free and sovereign purpose of God, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, that any are restored to holiness and the divine favor, and secured to eternal life.

That the Son of God became incarnate, and by His obedience, sufferings and death upon the cross, the just for the unjust, made a complete atonement, which forms the only ground of the forgiveness of sin.

That salvation is fully, freely, sincerely, and earnestly offered to all men, on the conditions of repentance toward God, and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

That Christ has instituted an external and visible church, whose sealing ordinances to the end of time are baptism and the Lord's Supper; that baptism is to be administered to all who make a credible profession of their faith and to their infant children; that the Lord's Supper is to be administered to those who profess to have been renewed by the Holy Spirit.

That there will be a resurrection of all the dead, both just and unjust.

That all must stand before the judgment seat of Christ, and receive a sentence of retribution according to the deeds done in the body; and that the wicked will go into punishment and the righteous into life; both of which states will be without end.

This you severally profess to believe.

Attend then to the COVENANT.

In the presence of God and this assembly, you do now solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever. You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ to be your Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit to be your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide. You cheerfully devote yourselves to God in the everlasting covenant of His grace, consecrating all your powers and faculties to His service and glory; and you promise, that through the assistance of His Spirit, you will cleave to Him as your chief good; that you will give diligent attendance to His word and ordinances; that you will seek the honor and interest of His kingdom; and that henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously and godly in the world.

[If any of you have not been baptized, you will now come forward and receive the ordinance.

Those of you who were baptized in childhood, do hereby recognize that baptism as the seal of this covenant, confirming to you its promises, and binding you to all its obligations.]

While you acknowledge yourselves to be members of the whole body of Christ called the church universal, you do now cordially connect yourselves with this church in a more direct and special union, engaging to submit to the rules of government and discipline which it has adopted ; to strive earnestly for its peace, edification and purity ; and to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness and sobriety.

If, in consequence of change of residence, or from other cause, you should cease to worship with us, you engage to seek a transfer of membership to another church, as soon as you may be able.

Into this covenant you severally enter.

[This church recognizes the membership in Christ's visible church of those who belong to other branches of it. But deeming it highly proper that there should be a distinct recognition of the transfer of the relation, of those who are now to unite with us from other churches, you are requested to rise as your names are called.

Do you express your assent to the confession of Faith and the Covenant which have now been read ?]

In consequence of these professions and promises, we* affectionately receive you to our communion, and in the name of Christ declare you entitled to all the privileges of membership in this branch of His church. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel ; and on our part engage to watch over you in Christian affection, and to seek your edification so long as you continue to be with us.

And may we prove together in this new connection, the fullness of that blessing which our Lord has promised to them that are in covenant with Him; may His richest grace rest upon you to the end of your pilgrimage; and at last may an entrance be ministered unto us abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

NOW UNTO HIM THAT IS ABLE TO KEEP YOU FROM FALLING, AND TO PRESENT YOU FAULTLESS BEFORE THE PRESENCE OF HIS GLORY WITH EXCEEDING JOY, TO THE ONLY WISE GOD OUR SAVIOUR BE GLORY AND MAJESTY, DOMINION AND POWER, BOTH NOW AND EVER. AMEN.

MOUNT VERNON CHURCH.

ORIGINAL MEMBERS.

Those marked with an asterisk (*) are deceased ; those with an obelisk (†) are dismissed to other churches ; those with a double dagger (‡) are placed on a "retired list ;" those with a section (§) are those from whom the watch and care of the church have been withdrawn ; those with a parallel (||) are excommunicated.
